Night Songs with Frogs for cimbalom, with optional cd

Night Song with Frogs: in company with a nocturnal chorus of frogs, a cimbalom articulates a solo in five strophes. The Frogs were recorded by David Lumsdaine on the Darling River; the cimbalom music has a debt to the Gilbert third Piano sonata. Composed in 2004, the piece lasts six minutes and is dedicated to Tony, on his 70th birthday, with love and admiration. I am grateful to Ed Cervenka for a lesson on this marvelous instrument.
